1. Introduction

You have just finished a simulation game. With this survey we invite you to give some feedback on the simulation. The questionnaire is released by the Centre for Management Simulation at the Cooperative State University Stuttgart, Germany. Our aim is to compare different simulation games and different settings (e.g. online/onsite) with each other. By taking part in this survey, you provide us with important feedback and help us to learn more about the structure of teaching with simulation games. Many thanks in advance! The evaluation is anonymous, so please do not note your name or registration number anywhere in the survey.
